

FRESHMAN ORIENTATION PROGRAMME 2026

For International Students

Welcome to SP

Dear Freshman,

We are delighted to welcome you to our SP community!

All new international students are required to attend the International Students' Freshman Orientation Programme (ISFOP) 2026, together with the MOE Tuition Grant Briefing.

Please register for the programme via the registration link here by 6 April 2026, 5 pm latest or when registration reaches 500 whichever comes first.

This programme will help you:

- Understand important academic matters
- Learn about the MOE Tuition Grant scheme
- Get familiar with campus resources and student support services
- Transition smoothly into student life at SP
- Get to know the SP International Students' Club to forge friendships

We can't wait to see you there!

ABOUT ISC

Getting to Know Singapore Polytechnic's International Students' Club (ISC)

Welcome to Singapore Polytechnic (SP)!

If you are looking for a community where you can meet new friends, connect with people from diverse cultures and background, and feel supported throughout your journey, the International Students' Club (ISC) is the perfect community for you.

ISC is a vibrant, student-led club that brings together both local and international students through a wide range of fun and engaging events and activities. These events create opportunities for students to connect, build meaningful friendships, and experience different cultures together. With a strong focus on inclusivity and cultural exchange, ISC regularly organizes events that encourage students of all nationalities to interact, learn from one another, and grow in a welcoming and supportive environment. By joining ISC, you can make new friends, celebrate diversity, and create lasting memories during your time at Singapore Polytechnic.
