

Module Synopsis and Duration for (SCTP) Advanced Certificate of Performance in Ophthalmic Dispensing & Refraction (ACOPODR)

No	Certificate Title	Duration (hr)	Synopsis
1	Certificate of Performance in Optics	105	The course is designed for new entry opticians. This 3-4 month foundation program includes 4 modules on optics and ocular anatomy with engaging lectures and interactive tutorials.
2	Certificate of Performance in Dispensing	120	The course is designed for new entry opticians to equip learners with the knowledge and skills required for dispensing. It consists of engaging lectures, tutorials, and hands-on practical sessions, including an industry attachment to provide with real-world experience. Through the comprehensive program, learners will gain expertise in dispensing and professional ethics.
3	Certificate of Performance in Refraction	135	This course is designed to provide participants with the necessary knowledge and practical skills required to excel in the field of Refraction. Through a blend of engaging lectures, hands-on tutorials, practical sessions, and industry attachment, participants will complete three modules and gain a deep understanding of the fundamental concepts of refraction.