Poly Forum 2023

This marks the end of the 2023 Polytechnic Forum organised by TP! This 6-day event brought our students across Singapore and all the way to Desaru to learn more about sustainability efforts and putting their best and greenest foot forward.

Many of our LEAD students attended, going home enlightened and empowered.

"One big thing that stuck with me was learning to work with different people. We all had different courses and skillsets, so it was interesting to see the different ideas and solutions people came up with.
For example, someone from engineering would suggest a solution that had more to do with infrastructure, while someone from early childhood would suggest something to do with education. People could bring something new to the table and it was really insightful learning from everyone else."

3 Important Tips for Student Leaders

01 Communication
Essentially the foundation of everything. Being able to communicate effectively can bring a team together and produce better results.

02 Going above and beyond expectations
Pushing yourself to work harder can create more memorable experiences for your audience. Let the reward of your hard work be the smiles on their faces!

03 Time Management
Juggling commitments is no easy feat, so planning ahead is important to manage your time.

What's a challenge you face as a student leader?

Burnouts
Feeling exhausted and overwhelmed is completely normal so it is important to take a break to unwind once in a while.

What's the Best leadership advice someone gave you?

Be willing to step out of your comfort zone. No risk no story!

TP pLAnt Lah

Our LEAD students and the children in the YEAH! Programme came together at Tampines West CC to put their green thumbs to use! Memories were made, and progress was made towards sustainability too!

Thank you for everyone's support and participation!
